

MILESTONES IN LABOR HISTORY

The DC 37 Education Fund is offering a course on the notable events in labor history. The course examines the history of the organized labor movement, the relationships of workers to unions, as well as the impact of the labor movement on race, gender, specific political and social movements. Classes are scheduled to begin spring 2011 at DC37 union headquarters (125 Barclay Street). This is an 8-week course that will meet once a week. Study materials will be provided as well as a planned Field Trip.
