

Public says cut waste, not workers

The mayor plans thousands of layoffs even if unions contribute to closing the budget gap. Do you support or oppose layoffs to balance the budget?

Do you agree or disagree that the mayor should not begin laying off city workers until he has examined the cost savings available by using city workers instead of outside contractors and consultants?

Source: poll conducted for DC 37 by LRA Consulting and Schroth and Associates