

Bio for Marlisa Davis

My name is Marlisa Davis and I'm a porter at the 92nd St y. I've been a shop steward for the past 3 years out of the 6 years that I've been working here. This has been a challenging and exciting new experience for me mainly because I've grown to learn a few things about myself and others. I learned that I find great pleasure in defending those who might not have the confidence to defend themselves. Also that with great guidance, belief and support we are capable of achieving anything. I strongly believe in equal treatment and I'm not afraid to stand up for what's rights. I would love the opportunity to serve as a Delegate so that I may continue to fight for the rights and elevation of hard working people. Best regards, Marlisa Davis
